

Interpreter Services Complaint Form

The New Hampshire Judicial Branch is committed to providing interpreter services to all litigants, witnesses, and parties in interest who need those services in order to meaningfully participate in court proceedings.

If you have a complaint about the interpreter services the New Hampshire Judicial Branch provided, we would like to know, as soon as possible. Your complaint will help us ensure that we provide you and others with the language services needed. If you have a complaint, please complete the form below. The more information you provide, the better we will be able to address your complaint. You may attach additional pages in order to provide complete information.
