HOW DO I OBTAIN A RECORD SEARCH?

General information:

- Complete and print the Record Search Request form for each individual court in which you are seeking records: A record search consists of a Record Search Request form, with the appropriate fee, completed for each individual court location.
- Read the Fee Information on the second page of the form.
- If you complete the form prior to printing, the form will calculate the total for you. If you print the form and then complete it, you must manually calculate the fee for the requested record check(s).
- Make checks payable to NHJB Central Processing Center.
- Mail the completed form and the required fee to the following address which is on the form:
New Hampshire Judicial Branch Administrative Offices
Attention: Central Processing Center

Frequently asked questions:

Question: If I have the case number of the case I need information about, do I need to submit the form and a fee?

Answer: No. If you go to the court and provide the case number of the case file you need to review, there is no record search fee.

Question: If I don't have a case number, do I need to submit the form and a fee?

Answer: Yes. Record search requests by the following without a case number require the completed form and a fee:

- Employers (e.g., re: security clearance)
- Attorneys (except inquiries about cases in which they have filed an appearance)
- Non-parties to a case (except as listed below)
- Anyone requesting a list of all of the cases they have been a party to (will need to pay a filing fee)

Requests submitted by the following do not typically require a fee:

- Military recruiters
- Law Enforcement (State and Local Police Departments)
- Prosecutors
- Public Defenders
- Contract Attorneys
- Anyone who has a case number
- Attorneys requesting information about a case in which they have filed an appearance
- Parties requesting information about a single case in which they are a party

NOTE: The individual courts are able to perform quick searches when a single record check is needed. It is not guaranteed, however, that the request can be completed the same day. If the record check cannot be performed immediately, the court may direct you to mail or deliver the request to:
