GUIDANCE FOR FILING CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS IN FILE AND SERVE Electronic Filing Rule 11

IMPORTANT: Do not file confidential documents unless required or unless these are material to the proceeding. When using the File and Serve electronic filing program, follow these instructions if you must file confidential documents.

Electronic Filing Rule 11 – CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS

1. Documents listed in Electronic Filing Rule 11(c)

Electronic Filing Rule 11(c) lists numerous documents which must be kept confidential when filed with the court. See the last page of this guidance for a list of those documents.

If you need to file any of those documents in your case, take the following steps:

On the Enter Filing Details screen, select the appropriate Filing Code from the drop down list for the document you want to file. (The Filing Code can be thought of as the type of document.)

The most common confidential documents that will be filed in these cases are the Confidential Information Sheet and any personal identifying document such as a Birth Certificate, a Driver's License, or a Passport.

For the Confidential Information Sheet, you will see the word CONFIDENTIAL in the filing code description.

For a Birth Certificate, although the word CONFIDENTIAL is not in the description, select this code and the program will automatically keep this filing confidential.

When filing any other personal identification documents (such as a Passport or Driver's License or any other document that contains similar information), select Personal Identification as the filing code. By selecting this filing code, the system will keep these documents confidential.

If you look through the Filing Codes but do not see the name of the document you are filing and you are sure that the document matches one on the list in Rule 11(c), select Other (CONFIDENTIAL).

Enter a Filing Description.

Under Lead Document, select Click to Browse to upload the document.

Under Security you will see Confidential or Non-Public. There is no need to change the security code for the above documents because they have been pre-programmed and the program will keep these documents away from public view.

NOTE: It is not necessary to file a Motion to Seal if the document you are filing is one of the above types of documents. The program will keep the documents away from public view if you select the filing codes described above.

2. Documents not listed in Electronic Filing Rule 11(c) (or described above)

Electronic Filing Rule 11 states that when filing a document that you would like the court to keep confidential that is not listed in Rule 11(c), you must file it along with a Motion to Seal See Electronic Filing Rule 13 regarding Motions to Seal.

This requires two separate uploads:

- a. For the document you wish to keep confidential:
On the Enter Filing Details screen, select the appropriate Filing Code from the drop down list for document you want to file.

Enter a Filing Description.

Under Lead Document, select Click to Browse to upload the document.

Under Security, it is essential that you select Non-Public Document. This will ensure that the document is kept confidential upon filing, pending ruling of the court.

- b. For the Motion to Seal the document you wish to keep confidential: Select Add Another Filing

Select the Motion to Seal from the drop down list as the Filing Code.

Enter a Filing Description.

Under Lead Document, select Click to Browse to upload the document. Under Security, it is essential that you select Non-Public Document.
