AGREEMENT TO MEDIATE – EVICTION DIVERSION PROGRAM

By participating in this process, I acknowledge that:

- Mediation is a private and consensual process in which I will work to explore options for resolving the matter that brought me here today. Responsibility for resolution of the dispute rests with me and the other parties and I will be responsible for any agreements I may make during the mediation.
- I agree to participate in mediation in good faith. I affirm my willingness to speak honestly and disclose information important to bringing this matter to a fruitful outcome. I agree to use my best efforts to listen openly to the other side.
- I understand that although I will participate in good faith, I am not required to settle my dispute during mediation.
- I understand that the mediator is an impartial person who will not provide me with legal advice and that I am entitled to have an attorney with me during this process if I choose to or to consult with an attorney during the process or before signing an agreement.
- I understand that if I do reach agreement through the mediation process, the agreement is a contract between the parties. I understand that I will need to comply with the agreement. If I do not comply, the other side may seek enforcement of the agreement through the court process.
- I understand that the mediation process and any discussions that take place during mediation are strictly confidential, and that no part of the discussion with the mediator(s), except as provided by New Hampshire law or Administrative Order such as reportable abuse or neglect of children or elders or threats of parties, self or others, is ever reported outside the mediation session by the mediator or the parties, and may not be used against either party in subsequent court matters.
- I agree that I am not able to subpoena the mediator as a witness in, or request the mediator's records for, any court, legal or administrative proceeding arising from the mediation, and I understand the mediator will destroy any notes taken before or during the mediation.

AGREEMENT TO MEDIATE - EVICTION DIVERSION PROGRAM

REMOTE MEDIATION PROVISIONS

(Mediation by video or telephone)

By participating in this process, I acknowledge that:

- I understand that this agreement supplements the Agreement to Mediate. The provisions in this agreement do not negate, replace, abrogate, or in any other way change the provisions in the Agreement to Mediate
- I understand that I am fully responsible for the privacy at my location of the telephonic and/or video mediation session.
- I will ensure that only parties to the dispute are within hearing distance of my location unless previously agreed to by all parties.
- I agree that I will not record or permit the recording of all or any part of the mediation without the consent of all parties and the mediator. I will ensure that each additional attendee at the mediation for which I am responsible also acknowledges and agrees to this.
- If mediation is by video, have been informed of the mediator’s video conference service provider and have had the opportunity to assess the provider’s online security and agree to its use.
- I understand that most privacy and confidentiality breaches are due to user error. Therefore, I agree that I will not share or disclose any Meeting IDs and passwords of the mediation session.
- I understand that there may be risks in using a remote platform for mediation and have freely consented to do so. The mediator is not liable, except as outlined in RSA 490-E.
- I understand that remote mediation is considered “mediation” for the purposes of all applicable legislation, regulations, and rule.
