

New Hampshire Rule of Criminal Procedure 19

Transfer of Cases

- 1) When any party files a motion in any superior court requesting the transfer of a case, or of a proceeding therein, to another superior court, the presiding judge may, after giving notice and an opportunity for a hearing to all parties, order such transfer.
- 2) When any party files a motion in any circuit court – district division requesting the transfer of a case, or of a proceeding therein, to another circuit court – district division, the presiding judge may, after giving notice and an opportunity for a hearing to all parties, order such transfer.
- 3) Unless otherwise allowed by statute or rule, a case shall not be transferred from circuit court to superior court or from superior court to circuit court. If the parties agree to resolve a case pending in circuit court or superior court in the other trial court, the State must initiate a new case in that court by filing a complaint and filing a notice of nolle prosequi for the original case.
