NOTICE OF INTERSTATE ENFORCEMENT AND COMPLIANCE WITH THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA)

1. This final protective order meets all full faith and credit requirements of the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. sec. 2265 (1994). This Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter; the defendant is afforded notice and a timely opportunity to be heard as provided by the laws of this jurisdiction. This order is valid and enforceable throughout New Hampshire and all other states, the District of Columbia, all tribal lands and all U.S. Territories, and shall be enforced as if it were an order of that jurisdiction.
2. Pursuant to Section 2265 of Title 18, United States Code, violation of any provision(s) of this Order, including support, child custody or visitation provisions issued under the authority of RSA 173-B of this State, is enforceable by court and/or law enforcement personnel of any other State, Indian tribal government, or Territory, as if it were their own order.
3. Violations of this order are subject to state and federal criminal penalties. If the restrained party (the defendant) travels across state or tribal boundaries, or causes the protected party (the plaintiff) to travel across state or tribal boundaries, with the intent to violate the protective orders and then violates a protective provision of this order, the defendant may be prosecuted for a federal felony offense under the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. sec. 2262(a)(1) or (2) (1994).
4. The National Domestic Violence Hotline provides information on a 24-hour basis on interstate enforcement of protection orders, how to reach an advocate, and the location of shelters. The Hotline number is: 1-800-799-7233.
5. If you have any questions whether these laws make it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm, you should consult an attorney.

NOTICE FOR DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PLAINTIFFS

This notice is provided to all plaintiffs who have received a final domestic violence protective order from any court in the State of New Hampshire, in accordance with RSA 173-B:5, VIII-a.

It may be unwise and possibly unsafe for you to contact the defendant. If you wish to contact the defendant for any reason, such contact should be made only after petitioning the court for a modification of the final order. In an emergency situation, you or a member of your family may request that the local police department notify the defendant and the local police may accompany the defendant to a designated location, such as a hospital, if appropriate.

REPORTING A VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER

If the defendant violates any portion of this order, the plaintiff may report the violation to the local law enforcement agency and file a written notice in the form of a petition for contempt requesting a further hearing on the matter. Forms are available at the court or on the court website www.courts.nh.gov.
